Message from the President - Dee

As quilters we want to know our sewing machines inside and out. I was making a tote and needed to change needle position. I looked at my 2 year old Pfaff blankly, as it's not obvious how to do this. And I KNOW THIS MACHINE! Couldn't find the manual so I went to my computer. Isn't technology wonderful? You all know we can find anything quilt related on the internet. I quickly found a tutorial on my particular machine explaining exactly how to move the needle. Of course, that led to me watching the entire tutorial, absorbing as much as I could, but knowing I can go back to it. There are endless how-to videos on YouTube and tutorials galore on our favorite sites, like the Missouri Star Quilt Co. Block patterns on Quilter's Cache, free quilt patterns on Pinterest, etc. Well, I just recently discovered the quilting memes. Just Google "funny quilting memes" for a daily chuckle: Happy quilting!

Family Potluck Barbecue - Lonna

A big THANK YOU to Cindi Jo and Jim for hosting a fabulous barbecue at their property on September 24th in Mendocino. Cindi Jo devised great games and the horse shoe tournament was a hit as was the quiz.

Thank you also to the members of the setup committee, to Russ P and Matt P for "manning" the grill and to Tina and Russ P for donating their grill and all the meat for the barbecue. A great time was had by all.

Education Committee Report - Carole P, Chair

Upcoming Quilt Shows:

- Ladies of the Lake October 7 & 8 Falling Leaves Quilt Show Lake Co. Fairgrounds

Service Committee Report - Ginny, Chair

We delivered 6 Chaplain Quilts and 4 Warm Welcome Quilts. Next month the hospital is expecting 10 babies and in November they are expecting 18! So there is a need for baby quilts. This month Mary delivered 12 Cat Beds and, wait for it 58 beds were delivered to the Humane Society. That's a total of 70 Pet Beds. It has got to be a record. A big thank you goes out to Sharon B, who donated pet beds which she made from the stuffing of her torn down old couch.

Donations for the Free Table need to be brought to the Senior Center on the 2nd Tuesday before the regular meeting, or contact Ginny C and make arrangements for pick-up or delivery a week before the meeting. We would like to be able to sort through and arrange the donated fabric for the Free Table beforehand.

Everybody loves the free fabric and we want to make it as presentable and accessible as possible for everyone.

The hospital has expressed an interest in our Goodie Bags. We need someone to take over the job of overseeing the Goodie Bag portion of the Service Committee. Please let Ginny C know if you're interested in helping out.

Our photo directory has no updates this month, but if you would like to be included in our sensational club's photo directory (not mandatory), please see Sharon L at Sunday's meeting, as I will not be able to attend this month. Sharon will snap your picture, and we'll have updated directories to distribute at next month's meeting. And for new and current members, always remember to check out the 'Pictures' page on our website. It's fun to look at photos of our various and successful events. Thanks everyone!

Sew 'n Sew News - Paula

It has been a really busy 6 weeks for Sew n Sew. We have been busy adding new shelving for all of the new fabrics arriving. This week we have received some very good quality woven plaid flannels, soft on both sides. Next week we will be receiving solid flannels for your winter sewing. We also received some Tim Holtz and more Kaffe Fassett fabrics. My favorite new arrival is Nautical Sea Side by Jill Mc Donald, a very cute print. I think this line of fabric would make a great quilt!

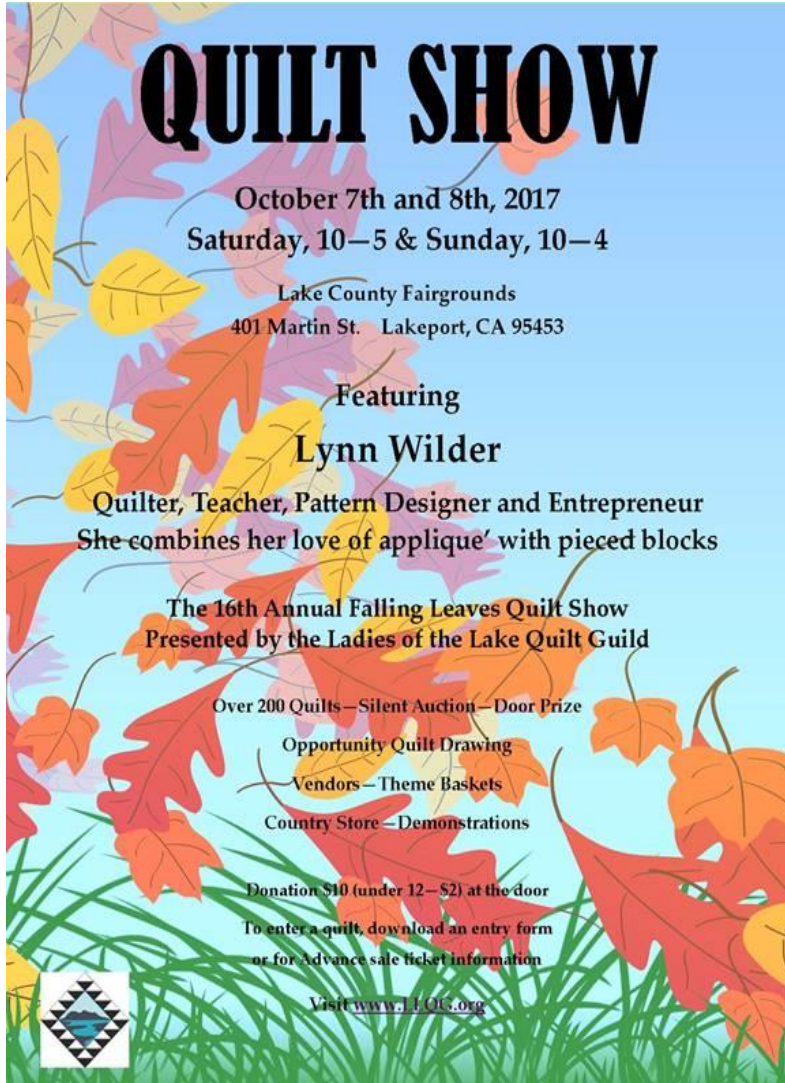

I will be bringing a sample of the Scarecrow table runner to the meeting on October 8th. This will be the first class taught at Sew n Sew on Saturday October 14th. There are still a few spots left for this raw edge appliqué class. Thank you to each and every one of you for stopping by with good wishes and shopping.

Fall Retreat at the Lions Hall - Paula and Cindi

The fall retreat is scheduled for Wednesday, October 18th through Saturday, October 21st. The location has been changed to the Lions Hall, located at 430 East Redwood Avenue in Fort Bragg. We will begin each day at 9am; ending times will vary.

As always, we will do a potluck lunch each day. There will be a signup list at the meeting on Sunday for attendance, setup, cleanup and for our Taco/Taco salad Friday lunch. Details for the retreat will be discussed then as well. We will also email this information after the meeting for those who cannot attend the meeting.
